- In September 1955 First Secretary Boleslaw Bierut travelled to Moscow to inform the Soviet government of the position of the PZPR (United Polish Workers Party) relative to the Oder and Neisse territories. He asked members of the Soviet Pelitburo to bear in mind Poland's resolute claim to this area, and pointed out the danger that might arise if Polish rights were not guaranteed when negotiations are held with East and West Germany.
- 2. PZPR circles close to the Polish Politburo believe that Bierut was not very sympathetically received and that he failed to achieve the objective of his mission.
